We are required to respond to the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office from time to time regarding these applications. In some cases, if the request has no response, the applicant can lose the right to continue with the prosecution.

Accordingly, as the Administrator is technically the "owner" of these assets, I am required to either:

(1) transfer the files to you for your own continued prosecution of the cases as you see fit; or

(2) obtain from you, authorization for me to represent you in the continued prosecution of these applications, along with your agreement to pay all charges and fees related to this continued support.

We would be happy to continue to represent the owner on these applications, but we cannot do so without the proper authorization and payment for the services rendered.

Please reply with your directions in this matter by return facsimile. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
